David leaned against the railing and looked up the flight of stairs that still rose above him. He sighed deeply, not so much from the strain of his climb as from the inner heaviness that preyed upon him. He had not seen Dick for almost two weeks. The argument that had caused the rift was, like most disagreements, silly and pointless, but it had separated the two for the first time since their initial meeting eight months before.

Now, unable to shake the loneliness that consumed him, David had decided to swallow his pride and make the first move. He had to let Dick know how much he loved and missed him. He wanted so much to be back again in his lover's arms.

The stairs passed quickly under him, and as he reached the landing and headed for Dick's apartment, the door opened in front of him, and Dick stepped out. For what seemed an interminable moment, they faced each other, speechless.

Then, dropping his eyes to the floor, David began with, "I came to apol. . . ."

Dick laid his palm gently across David's mouth. "Don't say it," he whispered. "I know . . . I was just coming over to your place to do the same thing." He smiled back at Dave, and pulling him into the apartment, he held him close in a crushingly tender embrace.

For a while they talked with the usual sheepishness that comes when adults are forced to admit that they have acted like children. But a lot happens in two weeks, and the boys were soon engrossed in recounting their experiences while they had been apart.

As the old warmth began to return, they found themselves drawing together in a way that only lovers can, and soon caresses replaced conversation.

"I've missed you," Dick sighed as his mouth flowed across David's and they melted together in a fierce kiss. Their hands began to roam over each other's body, touching and fondling, and soon the two were stripping off their confining clothes in preparation for more involved love play.

Dick began to chew lightly on one of David's large round nipples, pulling his lover close to smell the sweet scent of David's flesh. He slid Dave's pants down over his knees to reveal the brown-skinned phallus that hung there cloaked by a dense dark mound of curly pubic hair.

Bending forward Dick lifted the shiny pink head of David's cock to his waiting lips. He licked hungrily around the luscious crown, then sucked the head of the delicate organ into his mouth. At the same time he ran his hands across David's tight rounded buttocks, stroking them gently with his fingers, kneading the firm solid flesh.

Anxiously David sunk to the floor and began to remove Dick's pants until his eyes feasted on Dick's gorgeous tool and the succulent twin orbs that hung behind it. Eagerly he tasted the thick white muscle until he felt it begin to respond to his attentions. He ran his hand through the curly blond hair of Dick's genitals and breathed deeply of the musky odor of his manhood. Taking one of Dick's large balls into his mouth, he rolled it back and forth across his tongue and tasted of its salty sweetness. Then it fell softly from his mouth.

Dick sank into a chair and spread his legs wide as his large rod began to throb with desire and mount slowly upward. David once again took the head of the imposing organ into his mouth and sucked on it eagerly, feeling it stiffen inside his moist lips. His own cock began to grow erect in anticipation.

Dick's tool was not a small one, and as David sucked the juicy member into his mouth, he could see much space that still remained between his lips and the base of the shaft. The swollen pink head alone seemed to fill his mouth as he sucked the rod deeper into his throat.

Dick moaned with pleasure as he felt his cock disappearing into the protective warmth of David's thirsty mouth. The blood was pounding forcefully through the rigid muscles of his erection. He reached up and felt David's cock which was beginning to awaken with life. At his touch it moved upward swiftly until soon it stood full and tall in Dick's hand.

Withdrawing his rod from David's mouth, Dick arched forward and took his lover's silky skinned shaft into his mouth. He darted his tongue into the open slit of the head and tasted the saltiness of David could feel the increased churnings in his loins as Dick continued to work his lips up and down the steel-rigid shaft of David's prong. Beautiful visions floated through David's mind as he relaxed into the wonderful sensations of the moment.

He visualized once again many of their past encounters from the last months. Sex with Dick had always been very special and most exciting—but never any more so than this. Perhaps because it was a reconfirmation of their love.

The activity in David's groin brought his mind sharply back to present delights. Suddenly he desired to once again taste that gorgeous valley that lay between his lover's milky-white melons. Dick's buttocks were nicely shaped, with a line of dark blond hairs that crept out of the crack and played sparsely across the firm rounded mounds.

Pulling himself away from Dick's mouth, David was soon crouched over him and staring into the inviting crack of Dick's ass. A thick cluster of hair sprang up from the backside of Dick's sac and disappeared into the hidden canyon above. Parting the tightly closed clumps of flesh, David looked longingly at the taut round muscle that marked the doorway to even greater pleasures.

Pressing his face into the dampness of Dick's valley, he began to lick around the tiny brown sphincter. The puckered muscle had a salty-sweetness that was not at all unpleasant, and the pungent odor of Dick's tempting hole drove that urinal tract. The soft hair-trimmed skin of David's sac crunched easily between Dick's fingers as he plied the sauce-filled nuts within. David's body jerked involuntarily as a burst of pleasant pain shot up from his groin as Dick continued to massage the tender spheres.

David wild with desire. He pushed his tongue against the circular doorway and felt it give slightly. The very tip of his tongue slipped into the inner warmth of Dick's bunghole.

Shoving his tongue harder against the opening, he felt it advance further into Dick's canal. The wet lining of Dick's cave rushed up to encompass the intruder. Dave drove his tongue still deeper as Dick began to squirm with pleasure, thrusting his buttocks upward into David's face.

A sigh escaped Dick's lips as he felt the slippery warm organ being shoved deeper into his anal cave, darting in and out and lapping against the walls of his intestine. He reached back and pulled David's head up to his own until they met in a passionate lingering kiss.

Rolling to the floor each boy took the other's cock into his mouth and began to suck it violently. For an infinity of delights, they lay there basking in the pleasurable taste of hot flesh.

With his lips David searched the length of Dick's rigid pole, kissing and licking the satin-covered steel. He bit gently into the wrinkled flesh of Dick's sac and brushed his teeth lightly across the sauce-filled balls within it. At the same time he tingled to the lapping of Dick's tongue up and down the expanse of his own pulsating tool.

Then he felt his cock slip from Dick's mouth as Dick's juicy warm lips began to explore between his thighs and further back into his buttocks. Spreading his legs he lifted them high into the air as Dick's tongue dove into the open valley that lay exposed there.

Dick flicked his tongue rapidly up and down the length of the deep ravine between David's luscious cheeks. Then, taking David's erect pole into his mouth once again, he began to search out David's tiny sphincter with a probing finger. His finger zeroed in on the hole, and Dick pushed lightly against the opening. It relaxed slightly. With the tip of his finger, he rubbed the puckered muscle that comprised the opening to David's inner chamber.

Forcing his finger harder against the tightened hole, he felt it open to admit the foreign object. As his finger penetrated deeper into the cave, he began to work it around brushing against the wet inner lining of the canal.

"Oh, God!" David groaned as the sweet sensation soared through his being. "Fuck me, baby, fuck me!" he pleaded as Dick's finger began to pump faster in and out of the circular opening.

Dick left the room and returned quickly with a bottle of lubricating jelly. He handed it to David who began to apply it generously to Dick's swollen rod. Dick closed his eyes, enjoying the bursts of pleasure that sprang up from his cock as David's hand brushed repeatedly over the swollen crown at the head of his rod. His rigid pole was soon covered with the thick jelly, and Dick was anxious to bury it deep inside David's body.

Forcing David's knees up to his shoulders, Dick had him wide open for a good buggering. He lay the shiny pink head of his cock against David's cave and thrust forward with his pelvis. He felt the head of his rod slide forward until it had cleared the opening and was seated comfortably inside the liquid channel. He pushed harder and his firm member, aided by the slick yellow jelly, slid easily halfway inside David's body.

"Oh, man, you feel so good," David moaned as he felt the large muscle filling up his channel. He ground his buttocks harder against Dick's thrusting pelvis and soon Dick's steel shaft was buried to the hilt inside David's body.

Dick began to drive his cock faster in and out of the opening as the thick lubricant mixed with their own bodily juices to produce an easy entrance into David's deepest recesses. He pulled his erect rod out until the head of his cock met with the tight ring of David's sphincter, then he pushed it forcefully back into the opening.

It was as if a thousand slippery fingers were massaging Dick's cock, pulling and kneading it, drawing out every sensation that lay stored inside the millions of nerve cells there. He fucked David as he never had before, discovering new delights that he had never noticed. He closed his eyes as enticing visions of their lovemaking passed through his brain.

David shook his head from side to side as the steel shaft continued to pound into his cave. Dick's cock was buried so deeply into the channel that David could feel Dick's balls banging against him. Dick's rigid meat filled up all of David's canal and pressed up sharply against David's prostate. David's body began to tremble with the overflow of sensations coursing through it.

Dick's lips sought hungrily for David's mouth, and they pressed their lips together in an endless kiss. When neither boy thought he could last much longer, they stopped momentarily and assumed a new position.

David rubbed some of the thick lubricant onto his own prick until his hand slid easily up and down the shaft. Dick lay prone on his back, and David, then, crouched over Dick's erect tool. He eased himself down slowly until he felt the head of Dick's rod bump against his wet round opening. He lowered himself still further, guiding Dick's throbbing prong slowly into his hole.

The rigid meat slipped easily into the orifice, and David was soon sitting flat on Dick's belly with Dick's huge rod buried to the hilt inside him. David began to rotate his buttocks slowly feeling the long muscle pushing up sharply into his cave.

Reaching around David, Dick began to manipulate his lover's cock which was stiff and begging for attention. He pounded the slippery tool faster and faster as David continued to rotate his buttocks round and round on the shaft of steel.

Both boys were again nearing climax when David pulled himself up off his lover's cock. With their legs intertwined so that their cocks lay against each other, David began to jack them both off at the same time. Dick moaned with pleasure as David's hand beat up and down his tender meat.

Each boy could feel the pulsation of the other's cock as David continued to hold them tightly together, his hand almost becoming a blur as he pumped them faster. Each of them fought desperately to hold back the orgasm that was so near.

Now Dick grasped his own cock and held it for a moment resisting the impending climax. David still held onto his own hardened rod. He gripped it at the base, and with his fingers he reached down to toy with his slick asshole. Then each boy began once again to stroke his own steaming tool.

It was only a matter of moments before Dick felt a powerful surge in his loins and knew that his climax was coming. He wrapped his legs tightly around David's body as the thick hot cum began to shoot up out of the tube. It sprayed up into the air and splashed in hot puddles onto his stomach and chest. Dick's body jerked uncontrollably as wave upon wave of increasing pleasure ripped through his body and exploded in his brain. He continued to stroke the milk-covered shaft until every drop of liquid had been drained from his throbbing tool.

It had been a beautiful sight for David to watch, to see his friend in such ecstasy. He reached forward and grasped Dick's limp muscle in an attempt to squeeze out any bit of spunk yet remaining. But his own demanding tool was now begging to be relieved of its heavy load of serum.

David began to massage his rod slowly sending a score of agonizing exciting sensations throughout his body. He could feel the pressure mounting in his groin, and it felt as if his entire genital area would explode at any moment so great was his need to climax.

And then it began. . . . His balls pulled up tightly within their sac sending the first wad of hot white cream hurtling up the shaft. As Dick saw David's cum begin to spew out into the air, he reached over and grabbed his lover's balls, clenching them tightly as David's orgasm continued to build.

David arched his body upward driving his pelvis repeatedly against his hand as the pearly liquid coated his stomach. The sudden release coupled with the added sensation of Dick's hand gripping his balls was almost too much for David to bear. For a time it seemed as if his mind blacked out all together as he entered a world of ecstasy he had never known before.

For a time it seemed as if his mind blacked out all together as he entered a world of ecstasy he had never known before.

At length he relaxed, and the two joined hands and lay for a time, peaceful and silent. "Well," Dick sighed at last, "it was never like that before. Whatever we've got . . . let's don't lose it!"

"No! Never!" David agreed emphatically. And then they were speechless again, kissing and caressing—just happy to be together.

A cooling shower soon had the boys refreshed and ready to continue their activities. For a long while they amused themselves with fondling, kissing and caressing each other.

Lying on Dick's bed they gave their fantasies full rein and explored each other's body completely. It was as if they had not had sex less than an hour before, as they searched each other's body finding new ways to arouse and excite themselves.

Soon they took up the sixty-

Dick's tender honey hole. He shoved the head of his cock against the muscle. Since David had already lubricated the hole with his mouth earlier, his rod slid with ease into the opening. David pulled Dick's buttocks closer feeling his cock penetrate further into Dick's canal.

Dick lifted himself up on his elbows and arched himself further onto David's throbbing tool. It slipped in easily until Dick's buttocks rested tightly against David's pelvis. For a while David held Dick's ass close, grinding his cock harder up inside his lover's body.

"Oh, man," Dick moaned. "I've never been balled like this . . . never!" He thrust himself still harder against David's prong feeling it push up somewhere deep inside his body.

David pumped his pulsating rod faster into his lover's tight bungnine position and began once again to suck each other toward climax. Unable to content themselves with just that, they began to probe each other's asshole, licking and tasting the musky juices there.

David probed deeply into Dick's secret love hole as Dick groaned with delight. Soon Dick's face was likewise buried between David's two rounded melons. They continued to taste and tease, driving each other to new peaks of passion.

At length, attempting a position they had never tried before, Dick lay with his buttocks resting on the bed and his shoulders and back on the floor below. He spread his long legs wide, opening up his beautiful crevice for David to enter.

David lifted Dick's buttocks still higher until he could bring his cock up comfortably against hole. Dick's taut sphincter seemed to caress David's meat as it passed through and threatened to pull the hot white juices from David's body once again. Fearing that he was on the verge of climax, David pulled his searing tool out of Dick's hole and eased Dick's buttocks back onto the bed.

"Let me taste that cock that fucked me so well," Dick begged and took the delicious meat into his mouth sucking it until David thought he could stand no more. Then Dick laid him on his stomach.

"Honey, I'm gonna fuck you like you've never been fucked in your whole life . . . cause I love you, man!" Dick whispered and opened David's cheeks wide.

He found the tight round muscle easily with the head of his cock. He shoved against the hole which was now fully relaxed. His rigid organ slid easily inside. Leaning his full weight against his pelvis, he felt his cock penetrate all the way to the base. Now he withdrew it until the crown of the head had cleared David's hole, then he plunged it forcefully back into the opening. Again and again he repeated the process until both of them were groaning with pleasure.

For a while he shoved his prick in all the way and lay on top of David, grinding his pelvis into David's ass. He felt the head of his rod pushing up against David's prostate. Reaching under his lover's body, he grabbed David's steaming cock and began to stroke

Their two bodies seemed to join together as one as they undulated together toward the release of orgasm. Dick was the first to feel it coming. The soft inner channel of David's body that stroked his cock so tenderly was more than Dick could resist. The churning in his loins signaled the ensuing climax.

He wrapped his arms tightly around David's body, and gripping David's cock he pulled himself further inside his lover's hot cave as the first spray of pearly semen shot up into David's body. It felt to David as if the hot cum had entered his body clear up to his stomach and repeated showers of the hot ejaculate covered the walls and lining of his intestine.

He screamed with pleasure as Dick continued to pump the hot fluid into him. And then as if Dick's orgasm had triggered his own, David felt the warm syrup flowing up from his sac. Driving his rod harder against the cover on which he lay, he felt the first burst of cum explode from the slit. Dick pumped David's cock harder as the fiery juices emptied out. David's body arched upward forcing them both into the air while Dick continued to stroke David's tool until every ounce of the satin sperm had been released. They fell wearily back onto the bed. Dick pulled his limp cock from David's ass and watched a small trickle of cum run down between David's buttocks.

"Thank you," Dick sighed into David's ear. "Thank you for being you!"

David smiled up at him. "Well, some people may believe that 'love' means never having to say you're sorry . . . but it's so much nicer when you do!"
